Institute announces 2010 Board of Directors

The Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance (the Institute) is pleased to announce its Board of Directors for 2010. The Board includes two new Directors - Jonathon Fox from Elders Insurance and Karl Armstrong of NZI. Mr Fox comes to the Board in his capacity as the new President of the Institute Presidents' Council and Mr Armstrong joins in his capacity as the New Zealand President on the Board.

Institute President and Chairman of the Board, Mr Duncan West believes that the combination of strong industry experience and knowledge of all the Directors positions the Institute very well to continue to deliver award-winning services in education, consulting, membership and community programs, as well as enhance the recognition of professional standards within the industry.

"On behalf of our CEO and Director Joan Fitzpatrick and all Institute staff, I extend a warm welcome to the new Board of Directors," said Mr West.

"The support and involvement of such an experienced group of industry leaders will ensure we are able to expand and enhance our position as one of the world's best providers of learning and personal development for insurance and finance professionals."
